A Message from Potentate Mark

Greetings Nobles, Ladies, and Friends of Tehran Shrine,

Another month has come and gone. The temperature has improved a bit, but the smoke from nearby fires continues to make breathing even more difficult than usual. Our eldest daughter, who lives in Italy, asked how Central Valley residents handled the constant brown haze. I told her "We don't trust air that we can't see." Sad, I know...

How about that Ceremonial and BBQ competition!

First, congratulations to our two new Nobles - the father and son team of Roger and Randy Radtke. Please join me in welcoming them and their ladies Erma and Karla to our Shrine Family. And many thanks to our troupe of Mystic Shrine Thespians. Broadway has nothing on our group of actors. Nicely done!

Second, what about that BBQ. Talk about something to write home to mama about! Many thanks to the teams (the Clowns, Novkeys, Daughters of the Nile, and Hanford Masonic Lodge), for all their hard work!

And congratulations to the special honorees:

- Best Brisket: Hanford Masonic Lodge
- Best Chicken: Hanford Masonic Lodge
- Best Pulled Pork: Hanford Masonic Lodge
- Best Ribs: Hanford Masonic Lodge
- Judged Best BBQ entry: Hanford Masonic Lodge
- People's Choice: Hanford Masonic Lodge
- Best Table and Team "Look": Daughters of the Nile

Yes, it was a bit of a rout. I'm guessing there's something magical that happens when the meat is cooked all night in Clown Park. Hopefully, more teams will pitch a tent and join next year's all-night fun...

Most of all, though, I have to recognize two extraordinary Clowns: Bryan "Shades" Kincade and Jeremy "Sugarbear" Kern. Having just returned from a much-needed vacation one day before the BBQ, they bought and cooked (all night mind you) enough pulled pork for everyone to enjoy for lunch on Saturday. It was truly the hit of the day. Thank you, Nobles!

Oh, and I can't forget Jane Gamoian, Kerri Gans, and the Temple Bells for their offering of delicious cookies. A nice topper for the day!

Looking toward fall, with its typically better air and milder weather, let's talk about the events that are just around the corner.

We have a Stated Meeting to makeup, so please add Monday, October 11th to your calendar. We have several interesting and important topics on the agenda for your consideration and vote. Make an extra effort to attend.

October also brings:

- The Corcoran Cotton Festival Parade on the 2nd.
- On October 4th Kerri Gans will be teaching the ladies the finer art and rigorous science of making "Sock Snowmen." Sadly, now days, I don't know if they are snowmen, snowwomen, snowpersons, or something else. Even though I can't keep up, those in attendance will have much fun.
- The Paso Robles Parade on the 9th.
- The Shrine Day at the Races on the 15th.
- The First Ladie's Luncheon on the 16th.
- And, our annual Oktoberfest dinner on the 23rd. This year, in addition to the normal fun (including live music), we're going to recognize and thank all of our Past Potentates. The combination of good food and interesting stories makes this an event not to be missed.

One last note, the November Shish Kabob dinner had to be canceled. Turns out that by November the Spring Lambs have turned into Fall Mutton, and we're worried chewing might take all day. Perhaps Chief Rabban Larry will add this event to his 2022 calendar next Spring.

Enough for now. I look forward to seeing you at the Shrine Center!

Fraternally, Mark Dawson

Fez Room - Clean up Day/Week Memorabilia Give Away (Open House)

October 19 - 21, 2021

19th - Tuesday 2 p.m. - 8 p.m.

20th - Wednesday 10 a.m. - 4 p.m.

21st - Thursday 2 p.m. - 4 p.m.

We will be setting up tables in the hall to put the items in the fez room on display. Lots of fezs, bolos, pins, wine, beer and shot glasses. Shirts, costumes and lots of miscellaneous. Come out and help put things on display or just take a look. We encourage you to stop by, pick out some items and take them home. Items are Free! Unclaimed items will be disgarded. Oasis will be open.

From the Desk of Assistant Rabban Wayne Schwartz

Wow, here we are approaching the end of the year which is the subject of my 1st topic and that is “ITS PAY YOUR DUES” time. Well, you do have a couple more months, but hey, your Christmas bills will be coming down the chimney, so get this little chore out of the way.

Do you know about WebFez? It's the place you can look at the Membership Development System, review your Tehran Shriners, My Record (this is a goodie, it has all of your information in it) and then of course the help place (every one of you has one of these). If you sign in/up you will see your dues status. See, I did tie these two things together. Please visit webfez.shrinenet.org, sign up and look at the site occasionally as there are some great stories about the kids in our hospitals. Makes you want to be a Shriner and/or Proud to be a Shriner.

It's finally October, and you know what that means! Americans might actually start wearing masks.

OK, let's see what I can find out about October. October is the tenth month of the year in the Julian and Gregorian calendars and the sixth of seven months to have a length of 31 days. The eighth month in the old calendar of Romulus c. 750 BC, October retained its name (from the Latin and Greek ôctō meaning "eight") after January and February were inserted into the calendar that had originally been created by the Romans. You have to fast forward now - The last two to three weeks in October (and, occasionally, the first week of November) are normally the only time of the year during which all of the "Big Four" major professional sports leagues in the U.S. and Canada schedule games;

We have a big deal for you on the 23rd. Tehran's famous Octoberfest by our own Roustabouts. They always do a fantastical job and I'm sure this year will be better than previous so get your lederhosen, dirndl dress's and enjoy the party. The Pote tells me this is also our Past Potentate's dinner. Interesting thing here, there are 10 pp's in the Roustabouts. How bout that!

While we are on PP's, The first lady during Rob Crossland's regime (aka, Denise) is racing along with Tehran's Day at the races (October 15). Oops, last month's bulletin sez send in check by Sept. 15, but if you are interested give Denise a call 281-6976.

The Oktoberfest is the world's largest Volksfest (beer festival and travelling funfair). It is held annually in Munich, Bavaria, Germany. The Oktoberfest is an important part of Bavarian culture, having been held since the year 1810 Kronprinz Ludwig (1786–1868), later King Ludwig I (reign: 1825–1848), married Princess Therese of Saxe-Hildburghausen on 12 October 1810. The citizens of Munich were invited to attend the festivities (including horse races) held on the fields in front of the city gates to celebrate the royal event. It is widely believed that Andreas Michael Dall'Armi, a Major in the National Guard, proposed the idea of having this an annual event. However, the origins of Oktoberfest itself, may have stemmed from proposals offered by Franz Baumgartner, a coachman and Sergeant in the National Guard. The precise origins of the festival and horse races remain a matter of controversy. However, the decision to repeat the spectacle, and celebrations in 1811 launched what is now the annual Oktoberfest tradition. The city fathers assumed responsibility for festival management in 1819, and it was decided that Oktoberfest become an annual event. In 1832, the date was moved some weeks later, as a Greek delegation came. It inspired them for the Zappas Olympics which became in 1896 the modern Olympic Games. Well, isn't that something, just last month someone asked me how the modern Olympics started, so now you know!

I was in Germany at Oktoberfest and they asked me how many beers I wanted... I said nine, but they didn't bring me any.

There are some neat “holiday's” this month: American cheese month (make sure it's from Wisconsin where the cows are really happy), Caffeine addiction recovery month (nobody needs this), National Caramel month (kind of tells you what candy to eat), National Chili month, National dessert month, Pickled peppers month, pretzel month, Sausage month and pizza month (I thought this was last month with the beer), Yom Kippur, Columbus day and of course Halloween. Birthstone is Opal and pink tourmaline, Flower is Calendula.

October 12, 1492 - After a 33-day voyage, Christopher Columbus made his first landfall in the New World in the Bahamas. He named the first land sighted as El Salvador, claiming it in the name of the Spanish Crown. Columbus was seeking a western sea route from Europe to Asia and believed he had found an island of the Indies. He thus called the first island natives he met, 'Indians.'

Halloween, traditionally called "All Hallows' Eve," is celebrated on the evening before the Christian holy day of All Hallows' Day or All Saints Day (November 1). Therefore, Halloween is always celebrated on October 31. The origin of Halloween can be traced to the ancient Gaelic festival of Samhain (pronounced sow-in, which rhymes with cow-in), meaning Summer's End when people would light bonfires and wear costumes to ward off ghosts. This festival celebrated the end of harvest time and the beginning of the "dark half" of the year. In later years, the Irish used hollowed-out, candlelit turnips carved with a demon's face to frighten away spirits. When Irish immigrants in the 1840s found few turnips in the United States, they used the more plentiful pumpkins instead.

October 13, 1792 - The cornerstone of the White House was laid by George Washington. The building, located at 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue, is three stories tall with over 100 rooms, and was designed by James Hoban. In November of 1800, President John Adams and his family moved in. The building was first known as the "Presidential Palace," but acquired the name "White House" about 10 years after its completion. It was burned by British troops in 1814, then reconstructed, refurbished and reoccupied in 1817.

Did you know? One quarter of all the candy sold annually in the U.S. is purchased for Halloween.

How do you fix a broken pumpkin? ... With a pumpkin patch!
OK then, what do you get when you goose a ghost? A handful of sheet!

One last important thought:

Last month I mentioned that we need a few nobles to step up to the plate and run for an office of the Tehran Shrine. As of this date I have not heard of anyone wanting to run for an office. If you are interested, but are unclear on the duties and responsibilities, call the office and we will get you a copy of the by-laws that lay these things out. OK, if you are reading this on the 1st of October (Friday) you have 84 shopping days until Christmas.

I carry a stone with me to throw at anyone who sings Christmas carols before Thanksgiving.
It is my jingle bell rock!

Masonic Homes of California

California Masons dedicated the first Masonic Home in Union City in 1898. Created to shelter widows and children left destitute and alone, it was our fraternity's first major, tangible testament to the Masonic ideals of brotherly love and relief. Today, the Masonic Homes of California has expanded into a robust, statewide network of critical resources and services.

Through compassionate care, the Masonic Homes pledges to keep Masonic family members of all ages, throughout California, safe, healthy, and connected through relevant, impactful resources including.

- Masonic Outreach Information and Referral Services: Masonic family members can contact Masonic Outreach Services for help connecting with local services – from veterans' benefits to home care and transportation agencies. Call (888) 466-3642 to speak with a care manager.
- Masonic Senior Outreach Services: Senior fraternal family members can access needed resources to stay healthy and safe at home or in a retirement community in their local area.
- Masonic Family Outreach Services: Masonic families can access assistance navigating complex life challenges, including assistance during economic challenges, support for divorce and other difficult transitions, and information about local resources.
- Residential Senior Communities: Dynamic campuses in Union City and Covina offer an active lifestyle, social activities, and compassionate care for retired Masons and their wives and widows.
- Masonic Center for Youth and Families: Comprehensive, integrated behavioral health services are provided for children struggling with mental health difficulties. Experienced psychologists, social workers, and therapists work with the whole family.

Visit www.MasonicHome.org to learn more about the Masonic Homes.

The Masonic Homes of California is solely funded by member donations. To make a gift, supporting brothers in need, visit www.masonicfoundation.org/way-to-give/give-now/
